Max went to sleep that night and then he woke up. Max was at the Wild Place. Max found his Mom in a cage that was locked and the Wild Things saw him and put him in the cage too. They put him in there because they were mad because he left them the last time. They wanted to fatten them up so they can eat them. The Wild Things went to sleep. Mom and Max couldn't find the key because the Wild Things ate the key. Then Mom and Max escaped the next night but they didn't know how to get home. They found an arrow that says 'Ocean That Way'. So they found Max's boat and found their way home. When they got home, Max said. "I am never going on anymore adventures because they're too scary". Max's Mom said, "You are grounded for a year because you yelled at me and told me you were going to eat me up." Max couldn't believe he was grounded for so long.

They got scared when they saw him and ran away. Then the Supreme King came into Max's house to stand up to Max for the Wild Things who were scared of him. He kicked the door down to Max's room but fell backwards down the steps a few times. He got up and ran up the steps and grabbed Max and carried him to a secret hide out. Then Max tried to escape but it didn't work .The Wild Things took him to where it all started, back on the island. When he gave one of the Wild Things a handshake, his fur got on Max and it turned him into a Wild Thing. He was now the biggest and toughest Wild Thing ever.
